From the 17ha (42 acres) of landscaped gardens to the restaurant's scene-stealing candle-lined chandelier, this 18th-century residence is a sight to behold. Chef Matthieu Dupuis Baupal serves up Michelin-star, Southern France-inspired dishes, including Limousin veal and wild game. Outdoor features include the yew maze, lap pool and butterfly garden, while the on-site vineyard makes the cellar tour an essential part of your stay.
